RE: United States v. Marves Fairley
Criminal No. 26-23-2

Dear Judge Quiñones:

The government respectfully writes to notify the Court that this matter, as to defendant Marves Fairley, Criminal No. 26-23-2, is being transferred from the Eastern District of Pennsylvania pursuant to Federal Rule of Criminal Procedure 20.

The defendant was initially arrested and charged in a separate matter in the Eastern District of New York and subsequently charged in this District. In accordance with Rule 20, the defendant has stated in writing that he wishes to plead guilty, and to waive trial in this District, and consents to a transfer of this matter to the Eastern District of New York for plea and sentencing. The United States Attorneys in both districts have approved the transfer in writing.

A copy of the Consent to Transfer of Case for Plea and Sentence (Under Rule 20) form, signed and approved by all the appropriate parties, is attached for the Court's reference.

Sincerely,

DAVID METCALF
United States Attorney
